BEFORE YOU GO

Included & sponsored: Private transportation, tour guide and Taj Mahal entry tickets are already arranged and covered.

Timings are flexible and can be adjusted to the guests' convenience. The driver's phone number will be shared closer to the day for direct communication. Guests are welcome to add or remove stops based on their liking — simply convey this directly to the driver.

Lunch is at each guest's preference. Suggested restaurants are listed on the following page; the driver can take you wherever the group would like to eat.

SUGGESTED DAY FLOW

6:15 am	Car & driver arrive at JW Marriott Aerocity
6:30 am	Depart Delhi
~9:30–10:00 am	Arrive in Agra and meet your private guide
10:00 am–12:00 pm	Guided visit of the Taj Mahal
12:00–12:15 pm	Meet driver and transfer to lunch
12:15–1:15 pm	Lunch in Agra — guest's choice
1:15 pm	Depart Agra for Delhi
~3:30–3:45 pm	Expected arrival at JW Marriott Aerocity
4:00 pm	Latest planned return to Delhi

A NOTE ON TIMING

The 1:15 pm departure from Agra is a helpful guide so there is a comfortable buffer for the return journey. Actual travel times may vary with road and traffic conditions, and the day can flex around what the group enjoys most.

AGRA LUNCH OPTIONS

Saturday, 19 September 2026

LUNCH SUGGESTIONS

A mix of local Agra favourites and hotel dining — choose whatever feels right for the group.

- 1. Pinch of Spice
Local favourite • North Indian & multi-cuisine
A well-loved Agra restaurant with generous portions and a lively local feel — a strong non-hotel pick near the Taj circuit.
- 2. Dasaprakash
Local • South Indian vegetarian
Classic dosas, thalis and filter coffee in a simple, reliable setting. Ideal if the group wants something lighter and distinctly Indian.
- 3. Shankara Vegetarian Restaurant
Local • Pure vegetarian
Straightforward, well-reviewed vegetarian stop close to the tourist belt — easy, unfussy, and popular with day visitors.
- 4. Heart of Taj Café & Kitchen
Casual • Indian & café-style
Relaxed and convenient option close to the Taj. Good for a quick, easy lunch.
- 5. MoMo Café — Courtyard by Marriott Agra
Hotel dining • International & multi-cuisine
Comfortable international hotel setting with global and Indian dishes. A familiar, easy option.
- 6. Palato — Taj Hotel & Convention Centre
Five-star • International & multi-cuisine
Polished five-star option with European, Asian and Indian dishes in a contemporary setting.
- 7. ITC Mughal
Luxury hotel • Indian & international
Elegant five-star hotel dining with a more elevated atmosphere and several restaurant options.
- 8. Bellevue — The Oberoi Amarvilas
Luxury hotel • Italian, Pan-Asian & Indian
The most indulgent option, with an elegant five-star setting and broad international choices.

PREFER SOMETHING ELSE?

If none of these feel quite right, simply search “food near Taj Mahal” on Google and pick a place that suits the group. The driver will be glad to take you to wherever you’d like to eat.

Suggested lunch window: 12:15–1:15 pm, so the group can comfortably leave Agra around 1:15 pm. For five-star hotel restaurants, a quick advance reservation is recommended.
